citizen of the United States. His father was listed as SIMON BULOSAN and his mother MARTA SAMPEYAN, both of whom lived on the Philippine Islands until their deaths. BULOSAN has no children. He indicated that his religion was Catholic and his occupation "writer". He listed as an employer Local 37, Cannery Workers Union, UMW. According to his case history, he was referred to Firland Sanatorium by [redacted] 626 Stimson Building, Seattle. He was previously hospitalized for TB at the County Hospital in Los Angeles from 1936 to 1938. He was admitted from the Public Health Clinic, Seattle, with a diagnosis of Renal TB. He admitted to the examining doctor, [redacted] that he had consumed an average of 1½ pints of whiskey per day for a good many years. The examining doctor recorded his impression as "Chronic Alcoholism". The subject's weight at the time he entered Firland Sanatorium was 99 lbs. The case history mentioned that he had just completed writing a book for his employer, the Cannery Workers Union.

On 9/24/52 [redacted] who has been the subject's [redacted] at Firland Sanatorium since BULOSAN's admission to the hospital, advised that the subject's case would be prolonged and BULOSAN would be confined to the sanatorium for at least one year and probably longer. [redacted] stated that the subject could be interviewed at the sanatorium provided his, [redacted] permission was obtained just prior to the interview.

According to Seattle informants familiar with the Communist Party and Communist Party front activities, the subject has not participated in any Communist Party or Communist Party front activities since that reported by Confidential Informant [redacted] as set out on page 5 of the report of SA [redacted] captioned as above, dated at Los Angeles January 30, 1951.

The Northwest Edition of the "People's World" in its issue of 9/5/52, Volume 15, Number 174, page 3, column 1, contains an article entitled, "Local 37 Yearbook Offered to Public". This article is datelined at Seattle September 4, 1952 and reads as follows:

"The handsome profusely illustrated 1952 yearbook of the Cannery Workers Local 37 is now available to the public at $1.00 per copy, President Chris Mensalvas announced this week.

"The book is available at union headquarters, 213 Main Street. Proceeds from the sale will go towards defense of the embattled International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union affiliate, and its leaders, many of whom face deportation charges.

SE 100-20689

"Retold in the yearbook is the saga of the union's founding and growth in bitter battles against cannery workers. The union's fight is set in the framework of articles on the struggle for peace and to defend the Bill of Rights.

"The book was edited by CARLOS BULOSAN, noted Filipino author long associated with the labor movement and Local 37."

Due to the lack of Communist Party and Communist Party front activity on the part of the subject and his present confinement in a TB sanatorium, where he will remain for at least one year, the Seattle Office recommends that he be removed from the security index of this office. Due to the serious condition of his health at this time, it is not deemed advisable to interview BULOSAN. If at a future date he should leave the sanatorium and become active in Communist Party activities, the Bureau will be advised.

Letter of SA [redacted] dated 3/9/54, which is attached.

It is noted that during an interview of the subject on March 18, 1954, [redacted] advised that in the latter part of 1950 he furnished information periodically to another government agency concerning CARLOS LINOZAL, alleged proposal of sending [redacted] to the Philippines to join a Russian enterprise. [redacted] also advised that he furnished the same government agency with information that he had enrolled in the California Labor School at San Francisco in 1951. [redacted] declined to furnish the name of the government agency to which he referred, advising he was told not to divulge it by his superiors. However, the Bureau is cognizant that he was an informant of [redacted] in the past.

In compliance with Bureau instructions set forth in Bureau letter to San Francisco, dated January 27, 1954, no mention is made in the attached report that [redacted] was once an informant of [redacted].

It is noted that [redacted] letter to the Bureau, dated January 12, 1954, specified that that agency had no knowledge, indicating that [redacted] was considered to be picked up by a Russian enterprise, and that that agency had not received any information in the past that would indicate that [redacted] had knowledge of the manner by which orders are transmitted by radio to the ships in the Philippines by means of secret meeting in local carried by merchant seamen. The possibility exists that [redacted] may have furnished this information in the past, particularly to CARLOS LINOZAL.

Two copies of the attached report are being furnished the Seattle Office, inasmuch as it contains information concerning individuals who have resided in the Seattle Division.

Inasmuch as CARLOS LINOZAL, mentioned in attached report, is the subject of a case file of which Seattle is the Office of Origin (BU 100-2017), Seattle is requested to review its file on LINOZAL to determine if this Bureau has received any information from [redacted] regarding LINOZAL, in particular, regarding allegations made by [redacted] it being noted that [redacted] reportedly had investigated LINOZAL's activities in the past.

Office Memorandum • UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

TO : DIRECTOR, FBI (100-370827)

DATE: August 31, 1954

FROM : SAC, SEATTLE (100-20689) ✓

SUBJECT: CARLOS BULOSAN, wa.
SECURITY MATTER - C

Enclosed herewith are eight copies of a summary report on the subject as well as a FD-122 recommending him for inclusion in the Security Index.

The latter action is suggested inasmuch as the subject is no longer confined to a tuberculosis sanitarium and he has returned to activity in Communist Party front organizations in the Seattle area. Also in the process of the investigation the subject was interviewed at his own request and although cordial to interviewing Agents, he was vague and, in fact, uncooperative in answering questions concerning his background and relationship with the Hukbalahap movement in the Philippines. The only apparent purpose in BULOSAN's request for an interview was to "clear his record".

A native and citizen of Philippine Islands, this subject, age 42, has resided in United States since 1932, now lives at Seattle, and is employed as Publicity Director by Local 37, Cannery Workers Branch, International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union, which local is strongly influenced by Communist Party. He has not been reported to be affiliated with basic revolutionary organization at any time. A labor union officer stated that in 1950 BULOSAN boasted he was "No. 1 man" among Filipinos in Communist Party in America. In December, 1949 he wrote to [redacted] Hukbalahap [redacted] in Philippines, stating he wished to work with [redacted] and soliciting background material for a novel. He also offered to send clothing for [redacted] use. [redacted] after capture, identified BULOSAN as a former contact of Philippine Communist Party in United States who exchanged information through [redacted] (sentenced to life imprisonment for rebellion and other crimes). Information from OSI indicated that subject, using alias [redacted] had written [redacted] in collaborating in preparation of Communist propaganda to be published in Philippine periodicals. In interview by Federal Bureau of Investigation, Seattle, on his initiative, subject in June, 1954 denied knowing [redacted] was Communist Party member, said he had never been Communist Party member himself, and approved administration of [redacted] In Los Angeles subject reportedly was an organizer of two Communist Party fronts in the 1940's. At Seattle he has attended a number of activities sponsored by front organizations up to 1954 but has not been a leader in these organizations and has not substantially advanced their aims and purposes. As of May, 1954 he was a subscriber to "The New World Review".

Recommendation

It is recommended that subject be removed from the Security Index inasmuch as he is not known ever to have been affiliated with a basic revolutionary organization, during recent years has not taken an active or leading part in front organizations, and his compromising contacts in former times are subject to explanation based on the subject's national background and his profession as a writer.

Detcom Tabbing

The subject's Security Index card is not tabbed at this time, and it appears that he does not meet the present standards for tabbing if retained on the Security Index.
